ij utique, gauderetis utique, ij utique,

The musical notation consists of four staves. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a common time signature. The notes are represented by diamond-shaped symbols, some of which are crossed with an 'X'. Below the notes are letters 'ij' and the word 'gauderetis utique,'. The second staff continues the melody with similar symbols and includes the letters 'ij', 'ij', 'i:', and 'ij'. The third staff also uses diamond symbols and includes 'ij', 'gauderetis utique,', and 'ij'. The fourth staff concludes the piece with 'ij', 'utique, gauderetis utique,', 'ij', and 'utique,'. The notation is characteristic of early printed musical manuscripts.
