XI

Handwritten musical notation on five staves. The notation includes various notes, rests, and red '+' symbols. The first staff has a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The notation is dense and appears to be a complex piece of music, possibly a fugue or a similar contrapuntal work. The paper is aged and shows signs of wear, including a vertical crease down the center.

Handwritten musical notation on two staves. The notation includes a large bracket on the left side, possibly indicating a section or a specific part of the music. There are red '+' symbols and some notes visible. The paper is aged and shows signs of wear.

Handwritten musical notation on a single staff, including notes and rests.
